Descriptors for Effort Grades for Years 7 to 13

A – Excellent

The student is able to show interest by asking pertinent and sensible questions at appropriate times. S/he keeps up with the note taking as required. The student does as much as s/he can and shows a willingness to try in all areas. S/he is always ready to answer questions, and shows good listening skills and concentration. Teacher comments are taken note of and an effort is made to improve on past work. S/he is on task for the whole lesson, avoiding distractions such as chatting or time wasting.

C - Needs Improvement

The student sometimes asks pertinent and sensible questions, but does not always maintain the note taking as required. The student often pays attention although sometimes talks or interrupts when the teacher or another student is addressing the class. The student is often not ready to answer questions, showing lapses in concentration.

E - Very Poor

The student persistently talks or interrupts when the teacher or another student is addressing the class or at other inappropriate times. The student does not keep up with the note taking or the notes show a lack of care. The student almost never asks or answers appropriate questions. The student lacks concentration, and on the whole has difficulty staying on task, which can cause disruptions to learning. This grade will have a detrimental impact on her/his achievement grades and is a serious cause for concern.

Descriptors for Homework Grades for Years 7 to 13

A – Excellent

The student always hands in original work on the due date, and her/his work shows evidence of thought and planning, with all parts neatly attempted, showing that the student has tried her/his best. If the student has difficulty with the work or deadline or is unsure about any aspect of a task s/he will see the teacher in advance – at least the day before. Notes and diary entries are well-organised. The student always proofreads all written work before handing it in.

C - Needs Improvement

The student does not always hand work in on the due date. Although her/his work shows evidence of thought and planning, with most parts attempted, there is some room for improvement. The student usually maintains a fairly well-organised diary. The student frequently does not proofread all written work before handing it in.

E - Very Poor

Far too much homework is incomplete or not handed in. The homework diary is not filled in adequately. This is a serious cause for concern as homework is used to consolidate and extend work done in class. This grade will have a detrimental impact on her/his achievement grades and is a serious cause for concern.

Note: B falls between A and C, D falls between C and E.
